3. 2Timothy 3:16 Every scripture inspired of God is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction which is in righteousness. v.17 That the man of God may be complete, furnished completely unto every good work. The Holy Scriptures are inspired by the very breath of God and the words are alive. We read it one time and it ministers one thing and then the second time, we can get a whole different thought from the verse. Give a personal example of a second or third understanding of a verse.

4. Hebrews 4:12 For the word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and quick to discern the thoughts and intents of the heart. v13 And there is no creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do. The Logos is the written word of God and Rhema is the now word that the Holy Spirit speaks to us for a specific situation. Expect to hear what God is saying to you. It will be fresh and beneficial for you, and others around you. Select one verse and explain its Logos & Rhema interpretations?
